B. Faculty Ex Officio Election

1) Any dispute must be filed no later than twenty-four (24) hours after the polls have closed.
2) Disputes must be in writing and filed in the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Submissions may be submitted via email or hand-delivered.
3) Disputes will be reviewed by the Election Disputes Committee.

C. Election Disputes Committee

1) Consists of four members including: one faculty member designated by the Vice President for Academic Affairs, the Vice President for Student Affairs, or his/her designee, the Chair or Acting Chair of the Board of Governors or his/her designee, and one administrator designated by Metropolitan Community College’s President.
2) The Committee may consider the dispute by means of electronic or telecommunications and need not physically meet to consider the dispute.
3) The Election Disputes Committee will render a decision as soon as is practical after the closing of the polls and within ninety-six (96) hours after the deadline for filing disputes if feasible.
4) The decision of the Election Disputes Committee shall be final.
5) Any three (3) members of the Election Disputes Committee shall be a quorum to resolve any dispute.

7. Run-Off Elections

A. In the event of a tie, a special run-off election will be conducted in accordance with the election rules, but with such variations or adjustments considered appropriate under the circumstances.

B. Candidates will be allowed to campaign for one (1) week prior to the special run-off election.

8. Terms of Loss of Eligibility and Order of Succession

A. Faculty Ex Officio
1) If, after entering upon or being elected to a term of office, the Faculty Ex Officio member becomes ineligible to continue serving, resigns, becomes disabled to the extent that the member is prevented from continuing to fulfill his/her duties, dies, or is for any other reason prevented from serving or unwilling to serve in such office, the office shall be vacant and shall be filled for the remaining balance of the term of office by the candidate who received the second greatest number of votes in the most recent election (the first alternate).
2) If the first alternate is unable, unwilling, or for some other reason ineligible to serve as the Faculty Ex Officio, the office shall be vacant and shall be filled for the remaining balance of the term of office by the candidate who received the third greatest number of votes at the most recent election held respecting such office (the second alternate).
3) A similar sequence of filling the vacant Faculty Ex Officio office shall continue as long as an alternate candidate who received votes at the most recent election for the office is available, eligible, and willing to serve.
4) If no such alternate candidate is produced, a new election shall be held to fill the office, unless there are fewer than four (4) months remaining in the term.

B. Student Ex Officio
1) If, after entering upon or being elected to a term of office, the Student Ex Officio member becomes ineligible to continue serving, resigns, becomes disabled to the extent that the member is prevented from continuing to fulfill his/her duties, dies, or is for any other reason prevented from serving or unwilling to serve in such office, the office shall be vacant and shall be filled by following the same procedure as the vacancy of the Faculty Ex Officio.

C. Absence of an Ex Officio member from three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board of Governors, unless excused by majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Governors, shall establish that the Ex Officio member is prevented from serving or unwilling to serve in such office and shall automatically result in a vacancy.

D. If any other question arises concerning whether the office of an Ex Officio member has become vacant, the question shall be decided by majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Governors, and the decision shall be final.
