

Kitty Felde's first commissioned work GOGOL PROJECT! is opening in LA:

Gogol Project September 25 - November 1, 2009

Rogue Artists Ensemble Presents:

Welcome to Nevsky Prospect.

In our town, noses escape their faces, your rank is judged by the coat you wear and dogs sing love songs. Here, time is ruled by the law, but kept by a clock-keeper who wants to get the girl.

The father of modern Russian realism and satire, Nikolai Gogol was a master of the comedy of the absurd. The Rogues present three of his most enduring tales- "Diary of a Madman," "The Overcoat," and "The Nose"-using puppetry, masks, music, and digital projection, presenting Gogol's grotesque world as only the Rogues could imagine.

Special opening night gala on September 25th at 6:30PM with performance by Ego Plum and catering by Gastrobus

Gogol Project premieres at
The Bootleg Theater
2220 Beverly Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA
