MASTERS PERFORMANCE SERIES AT GREAT PLAINS THEATRE CONFERENCE

OMAHA, Neb. – The Masters Performance Series is an evening of dynamic theatre highlighting the works of featured artists attending the 2009 Great Plains Theatre Conference. Evening performances will take place May 26-29.

The Omaha Community Playhouse will host performances on May 26 and 27, featuring playwrights Constance Congdon and Mac Wellman. The evenings will include staged readings of new works from each of the playwrights. Both Congdon and Wellman will provide talkback sessions following the performances.

Creighton University will host the May 28 and 29 performances at the Lied Center for the Performing Arts. The work of Theresa Rebeck, the Conference's honored playwright, will be performed these evenings. May 28 will highlight several of Rebeck's short plays, and May 29 will be a full production of Rebeck's Loose Knit.
