

MCC Facts at a Glance

A snapshot of annual data for the 2024-25 academic year

METROPOLITAN
Community College

Metropolitan Community College delivers relevant, student-centered education to a diverse community of learners in Douglas, Sarpy, Washington, and Dodge Counties in Nebraska. This year at MCC, in credit-bearing programs:

25,363

Unique students were enrolled for credit throughout the year

10,502

New students started their studies at the college

714

Full- and part-time staff members worked to support the mission of the college

899

Faculty members, both full- and part-time, were dedicated to student learning

$70

per credit hour was the standard tuition cost for Nebraska residents

457,362

credit hours were attempted through the year

About
1 in 4

MCC students attended full-time

Nearly 40%

of those attending MCC were dual-enrolled high school students

MCC students represent a diverse population of learners, with a broad range of backgrounds and educational goals and career interests.

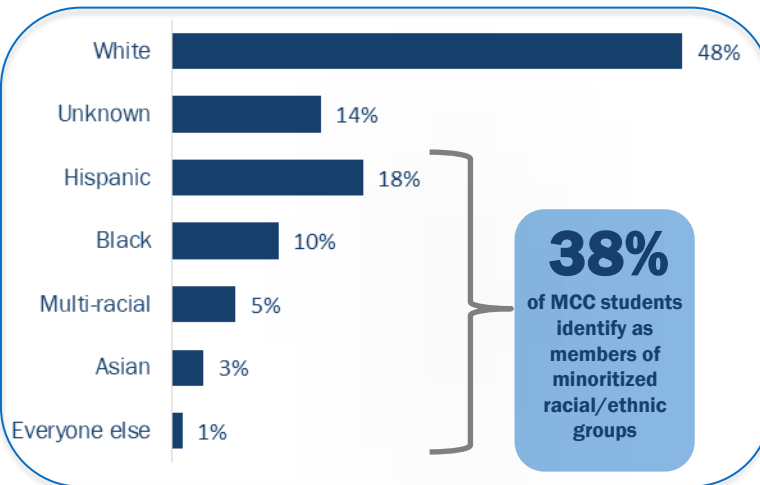

23.1

Average age of an MCC student (with most between the ages of 14 and 33 years)

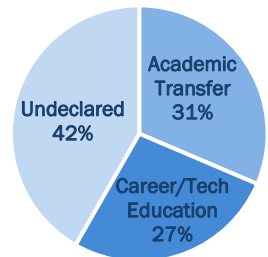

52%

Slightly more than half of MCC's students were female

A large proportion of students were undeclared, and most of these were high school students; about a third were in Academic Transfer programs, about a quarter in Career/Technical Education (CTE).

About 1 in 4 students took their courses primarily online in 2024-25

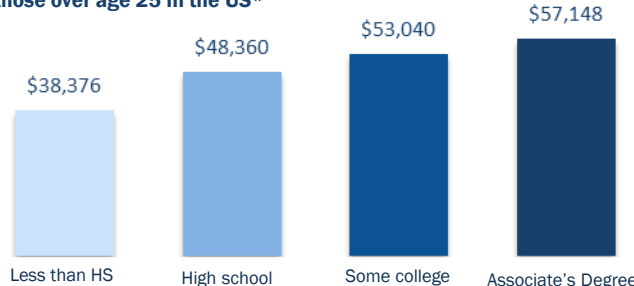

The economic effects of completing a degree is well-documented, and includes an impact on the students as well as the community.

2275

Graduates received degrees at MCC in 2024-25

Graduates from MCC can expect their income to increase as a result of their degrees, as shown by the median full time annual earnings for those over age 25 in the US*

In addition, as education levels increase, unemployment rates decrease - recent figures show associate degree holders have unemployment rates below the average of 3.3%

