

40105 Continuing Education/Non-Credit

To fulfill the ever increasing educational needs of the area, the College will offer well planned, diversified programs of continuing education and community service. These programs may include credit or non-credit opportunities such as classes, forums, lectures, exhibits, short courses, celebrations, and festivities to promote the cultural affairs of the College area, various community development programs and seminars, basic and general education development programs, and other programs and services as needed.

(Amended 12/18/84; 12/17/96; 11/19/13)