

40106 Special Training and Apprenticeship Programs

Special training programs may be provided where specific job opportunities are available or when industries, businesses, or professions request apprenticeship or similar training. These programs, usually of a short duration, will be tailored to fit the needs of a specific group and shall terminate when the group's needs have been met. Such programs may be held either at the College or at the client's site.

(Amended 12/18/84)