

60306 Social Security Benefits

The College withholds funds from the pay of all employees pursuant to federal Social Security requirements, and College employees are eligible to receive Social Security benefits resulting from their employment at the College, subject to Social Security eligibility requirements. Employees will be notified by the College in advance of any change in College withholding.

(Amended 12/15/15)