Open house to give students a glimpse of MCC

OMAHA, Neb. — Metropolitan Community College will be hosting an Open House Speed Tour on Saturday, Feb. 21, 10 a.m.–2 p.m. at the South Omaha Campus inside the Connector Building, 27th and Q streets, and the Sarpy Center, 91st and Giles.

Attendees will learn about career programs and services in fast, fun and informative five-minute sessions. Participants can learn about one and move on to the next. For those interested in more after they get a taste of MCC, staff are on hand to schedule campus tours, academic advising sessions, placement testing and more.

“The Open House Speed Tour is a great way for those interested in postsecondary education to learn about the types of career programs that we offer in industries that are growing. More importantly, we can showcase the support services MCC offers to help student succeed,” said Sheila O'Connor, executive director of public affairs at MCC. “Whether you're looking at returning to school or an upcoming high school graduate, the open house will be a great place to start.”
