Media alert: MCC ceremony to honor veterans, military families

What: Metropolitan Community College will host a Veterans Day ceremony to honor those who sacrifice so much. The event will feature keynote speaker Command Sergeant Master Marty Baker as well as a formal ceremony to honor veterans past and present.

When: Tuesday, Nov. 10, 11 a.m.

Where: Room 120 of the Industrial Training Center inside MCC's South Omaha Campus, 27th and Q streets.

Background: The event is free and open to the public and will be hosted by MCC's Military/Veterans Services, a program at MCC that aims to help service members reach their educational goals through advising, counseling, career coaching and support events. The ceremony will feature MCC faculty member Gary Sparks as emcee.

###

Metropolitan Community College, accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, is a comprehensive, public community college that offers affordable, quality education to all residents of Dodge, Douglas, Sarpy and Washington counties. Founded in 1974, MCC has the largest enrollment out of six community colleges in Nebraska and is the second largest postsecondary institution in the state. MCC serves more than 40,000 unique credit and noncredit students.
