MCC to host discussion session for Washington County future

OMAHA, Neb. — Metropolitan Community College will host a discussion session at 9 a.m. on Jan. 28 in the Blair City Council Chambers at Blair City Hall, 218 S. 16th Street. Residents are invited to listen and partake in the discussion regarding MCC's future in Washington County. The session comes after the Washington County Technology Center closed in November. Led by MCC officials, the session aims to gather ideas and opinions on the College's presence within the county.

Metropolitan Community College, accredited by the Higher Learning Commission, is a comprehensive, public community college that offers affordable, quality education to all residents of Dodge, Douglas, Sarpy and Washington counties. Founded in 1974, MCC has the largest enrollment out of six community colleges in Nebraska and is the second largest postsecondary institution in the state. MCC serves more than 40,000 unique credit and noncredit students.
