

Basic Guidelines

Contact information

Contact information should consist of the following for every resume:

- Full Name
- Street Address (the final decision to include an address can be made by owner of resume)
- City, State (If address does not appear on resume, this section will not be displayed)
- Phone - Primary
- Email (professional and appropriate email address only). Staff should always encourage the use of the professional email address for job seekers. (The final decision to include an email address can be made by the owner of the resume.)

Examples:

- johnsmith@yahoo.com, jsmith72@yahoo.com, mechanic102@yahoo.com

Objective

The objective should always be specific to the type of position (in NEworks), and feature:

- Complete sentences
Examples:
 - To obtain a position in the information technology field with an emphasis on programming and developing software applications.
 - To obtain a position in the information technology field with an emphasis on hardware support and software development.
- The ONET code should be reflective of the objective. This ensures the candidate receives a higher ranking for the job applied.

Work history

When listing work history, please use the following guidelines:

- Work history should be listed newest to oldest written in present tense for the current job and past tense (presented, designed, etc.) for previous jobs.
- Work history should reflect no more than ten years unless one job lasted ten years or more.
- For job seekers with multiple jobs in a ten year period, jobs should be listed in chronological or functional format depending upon the type of job being applied for.
- Work history should include dates unless you are concerned with ageism.
- Dates of work history should include the month and year.
- Each work history should contain a minimum 5 bullets (listing of job tasks).
- If using periods, they should be used at the end of every bullet.
- Each work history bullet should be a fully written statements with correct spelling and grammar.
- Bullets descriptions should be unique for every work history.

Education/Certifications/Licenses

Education information should be included on a resume using the following guidelines:

- At a minimum, a High school diploma/GED should be listed.
- If the job seeker does not have a high school diploma or GED – remove the Education section.
- If you have a college degree, a high school education is not necessary.
- Include dates unless the job seeker is concerned with ageism.
- List all certifications or licenses relevant to the position.
 - Ex. CNA, RN, HR, CDL, forklift operator, or welding.

Page length

- Two pages is the maximum for the Basic Resume
- Technical, IT or Professional Resumes may be longer than two pages.

Content

- Use action verbs throughout the resume.
- All content should avoid slang.
 - Ex. “My resume rocks yo”
- Avoid acronyms. All acronyms should be spelled out, except:
 - IT computer languages may be abbreviated.
 - Military acronyms should be spelled out (depending on job description).
- Avoid the use of “I.”
- Avoid personal information.

Examples:

- Birthdate
- Religious affiliations (as appropriate)
- Political Party
- Marital Status
- Children
- Organizations that reveal gender, political status, social involvement, race, or sexual orientation.
- Medical information
- Retirement

Formatting

1. Use consistent font size and styles throughout the resume.
2. Resumes should be void of blank headings (NEworks resume titles without supporting text).
3. Bullet points should be used for work history and ability summaries (avoid paragraph form).
4. Avoid use of bullets and numbers in the same resume.
5. Headings and Job Titles should always have a bold font.
6. Resumes should not include references.
7. Always use the spelling and grammar check!
